Level 3 Historic Data and Analytics
for the Capital Markets.

BMLL

bmlitech.com

BMLL clients access full-depth order book data, empowering them to make more informed decisions on the markets they trade and venues they run. They drive increased flow to their traders, back-test and launch new products, and generate alpha more predictably.

HOW BMLL DATA WORKS FOR QUANTS

BMLL provides quants with the highest quality data and analytics available

Gain access to the full depth of the order book with BMLL Level 3 Data and Analytics. By combining BMLL Level 3 Data with BMLL's scalable managed service and documentation, quants can:

- Improve and control database behaviour by eliminating unpredictability by relying on BMLL's enhanced quality check and validation process, maximising time and effort for alpha generation.
- Enhance signal detection and optimise algorithm performance at a fraction of the cost of building the capabilities in-house by utilising BMLL's data science infrastructure.
